DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed on October 18, 2006 has been received and entered. The amendment amended Claims 1 and 6 and cancelled claims 2-5 and 7-15, and added new claims 16-24. The currently pending claims considered below are Claims 1, 6 and 16-24.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 16-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hosoda (20010022662).

Claims 1, 6 and 24 Hosoda teaches, a system , product and data processing method which is executed in an information processing apparatus for performing a data process based on delivery data transmitted from an external information processing apparatus, said method comprising:

a reception step of receiving the delivery data transmitted from the external information processing apparatus (FIG. 1, paragraph 81 and paragraph 94,122);

an activation step of activating a program corresponding to the delivery data received in said reception step (FIG. 2: 805 and FIG. 5: 2101);

a judgment step of judging whether or not first data is included in the delivery data, by analyzing the delivery data received in said reception step (paragraph 350; data analysis);

an issuance step of issuing an event notification indicating that the first data is included, in a case where it is judged in said judgment step that the first data is included in the delivery data (paragraph 120; an issued email event notification);

a second judgment step of judging whether or not a process corresponding to the event notification has been registered in the program activated in said activation step(FIG. 5 and FIG. 12; job/process creation associated with an id); and an execution step of executing, in a case where it is judged in said second judgment step that the process corresponding to the event notification has been registered in the activated program, the process to be executed by the program activated in said activation step and corresponding to the event notification issued in said issuance step(FIG. 10: 2203; job processor unit).

As to Claim 16, Hosoda teaches a third judgment step of judging whether or not second data is included in the delivery data, by analyzing the delivery data received in said reception step; a second issuance step of issuing a second event notification indicating that the second data is included, in a case where it is judged in said third judgment step that the second data is included in the delivery data; and a second activation step of causing the program activated in said first activation step to activate a program for executing a process corresponding to the second event notification (paragraph 96 and 106 and 121; user entry data validation).

As to Claim 17, Hosoda teaches , wherein the first data is form data, and the process corresponding to the event notification issued in said issuance step is a form data process (FIG. 2).

As to Claim 18, Hosoda teaches, wherein the first data is field data, and the process corresponding to the event notification issued in said issuance step is a field data process (FIG. 2: 802/803).

As to Claim 19, Hosoda teaches, wherein the second data is user-defined data, and the program for executing the process corresponding to the second event notification is a program for executing password authentication (FIG. 6 , paragraph 162).

As to claims 20-23, they are rejected for the same reasons as the claims above.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to the applicant's disclosure.

D'Souza et al (US 6415282) discloses an intelligent forms for improved automated workflow processing.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
